2005 Fairfax County Environmental Excellence Awards

Purpose

The Fairfax County Environmental Excellence Awards have been established to recognize County residents, organizations, businesses and County employees who unselfishly dedicate time, energy and expertise for the betterment of the environment in support of Countywide environmental goals and initiatives. The Board of Supervisors will present the awards during a Board meeting in the fall.

Criteria

- The nominee clearly contributed in a tangible way toward advancement or support of County environmental goals.
- The nominee devoted personal time or expertise beyond normal fiduciary or civic responsibilities to advance or support Countywide environmental initiatives or programs.
- The nominee served as a model for individuals, groups or communities to follow in similar endeavors in advancing or supporting County environmental goals, initiatives, or programs.
- The nominee displayed effort above and beyond normal expectations in commitment to the betterment of the environment in Fairfax County.
- The achievement must have occurred during the period of eligibility or over a period of years including at least a portion of the period of eligibility. It may be for a specific service, accomplishment or for an accumulation of accomplishments over the years.

Submission Requirements

- The nominator notified the nominee(s) of their nomination.
- Separate nomination forms must be used for each nomination. Forms may be photocopied.
- Evidence presented in support of a nomination should show the worth of the contribution in terms of results achieved or the potential for future results. The evidence presented must show in detail how the contribution was extraordinary or unusual.
- Attach a statement (not to exceed 750 words) describing the contribution, with details of the nominee's role and the extent to which the contribution has benefited Fairfax County.
- Up to five supportive exhibits, such as testimonials, news stories, documents, photographs, resumes and biographical information, may be included. Any supportive exhibits must be reproducible.
